

3. However, in disciplinary cases wherein, the disciplinary authorities tentative propose not to impose any of the statutory penalties at the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings, (i.e. cases where the UPSC are not required to be consulted), the second stage consultation would continue to be made with the Central Vigilance Commission, involving Group 'A' officers of the Central Government, members of All India Services and such other categories of officers of the Central Government involved in composite cases. In other words, all disciplinary proceedings in which the disciplinary authorities propose to exonerate or drop the charges, the consultation at second stage would continue to be made to the CVC by the concerned administrative authorities.

4. The above dispensation would not be applicable to the disciplinary cases being referred to the Commission involving officials of the CPSEs/PSBs/Public Sector Insurance Companies/Societies/Local Authorities/Autonomous Organisations etc. and such cases would continue to be referred to the Commission for its second stage advice as per existing prescribed procedure.
